A Developer's Perspective

Wednesday, March 17, 2010

Registration: 11:30am

Event: 12:00-1:00pm

Members: $25/Non-Members: $30 / AACIP Student Members: $15

Location: Fort Calgary, 750 9th Ave SE, Calgary

Robert Sipka, President of Kanas Corporation will be joining members of the Calgary planning community to discuss development and building of affordable housing in Calgary. Kanas Corporation is dedicated to providing solutions for sustainable building in today's market, and constructing buildings with superior building envelopes for long term durability, while also focusing on developing quality affordable housing stock.

Rob's presentation will use their newest projects (Lumino, Lomond, and Fresh Start) to provide a developers perspective on affordable housing in Calgary. Based on his depth of experience in the City of Calgary he will provide insight on:

- Challenges of affordable housing in The City of Calgary including variable housing market, NIMBYism, location, balancing market / non-market, etc.
- Triple Bottom Line Philosophy
- Affordability and Sustainability
- Demographics
